A MURDER RECALLED .- On the 11th of August, 1806, William Lyles was murdered at his home, in Prince George's county, Md., and his house rabbel by some negroes. On the 14th, thirty-one years ago to-day, Chief Webster, who was a police constable at the time, assisted by the late Edward Davis, who held a similar position, arrested the negroes and recovered in different parts of this city $1,390 of the noney which had been stolen. They also recovered a number of articles which had been taken from the house. The murderers and robbers were tried and hanged at Upper Marlboro. The murdered man was well known in this city, which he visited about once a

Chief Webster accom-Officer Bettis started after he accused, and upon arriving at the ot referred to above Mr. Bettis entered from the north side and the Chief from the south. The latter knowing the desperate character of the negro, had his pistol (a self-cocker) in his hand when the weapon was discharged. Henderson was skulking in the lot at the time and the ball passed into his heart, killing him instantly.

MONEY FOR THE STREETS .- At the meeting of the City Council last night it was announced that on the first day of next January there would be $3,000 available for use in repairing and opening streets. This sum is a part of the direct tax collected during the war and ordered to be refunded by Congress, and which is in the hands of the City Treasurer unclaimed. Mr. Smith, a member of the Common Council and charman of the committee on streets, made the announcement to the lower board, and the law appropriating the unclaimed sum for street purposes was subsequently read. The first announcement was received with a decided murmur of doubt, as no other member of for the steamer Matano.

Council knew anything of the matter, The market to-day w but the rending of the legislative act settled the question and general regret was expressed that the sum was The law provides that if the money refunded to those who paid the direct tax during the war is not claimed by January 1, 1898, it is then to be turned over to the city to be used for street improvements. In addition to the $3 000 which the city will get, about $500 will be turned over to the county authorities to be used in road

RAILROAD MISSION NOTES .- Mr. Benjamin Murray will conduct the nen's meeting to-night at 7:45 o'clock in the reading rooms. To-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock Rev. J. Howard Wells, pastor of the Village Chapel, M. E. Church South, will conduct the ser-vice in the auditorium. At this service Rev. L. I. McDougle, of Trinity M. E. Church, will be present and sing. These services are very interesting and are attended by large crowds. The singing is led by s led by a number of young men, mem bers of the reading room workers, who will take great pleasure in welcoming you to these very inspiring services which are conducted on a union basis, every denomination in this city being represented in the organization. There is no collection taken but those who fell like contributing to this cause will and a box in the vestibule for that purpose. Gospel hymns Nos. 5 and 6 are used and everybody seems to enjoy

Success in business demands this of all successful business houses. All business men are not moulded alike. Penuriousness with some merchants is responsible for premature closing and repudiation. Some merchants never ad-How can a merchant keep a clean stock no methods of notification to the public? no methods of notheration to the public? Advertising is expensive and profitable, and a failure to advertise one's goods is a sure failure in all undertakings. It is pleasing to mention that nearly all small lots advertised in preceding issues have been sold. Do you expect to find new goods with the non-advertiser?
